

Let's get colouring!

Did you know..?

One third of the UK's bee population has disappeared over the last decade, but bees are vitally important for pollinating our crops, as well as for the better known products such as honey and wax.

HONEYBEE

Bees are furry and wasps are smooth! Wasps are also a vivid yellow, while honeybee's are golden.